Got Mayville's Goat Yesterday When Lexington Walloped Them 13 to 1.

Lexington, May 26.—For the second time this year Lexington hung up a winning streak of six games by defeating Mayville yesterday afternoon at League Park. The locals made the Burley Cubs look like amateurs and rolled up a score of 13 to 1 before they got tired of running the bases. It was a fast slugfest for the Colts, who have accumulated thirty nine hits off three pitchers in the last two games, and the team has batted .400 in the two contests.

SCHOOLS STAY OPEN

No Cause for Alarm Over a Score of Cases of Scarlet Fever Say Health Authorities.

A special meeting of the School Board was held last night to consider the advisability of closing the Public Schools on account of the scarlet fever scare.

Vice-President Russell was in the chair and on call of the roll, nine members responded to their names.

The physicians, the Board of Health, and Health Officer Yazell were invited to be present.

Dr. Yazell had been in communication with Dr. A. T. McCormack.

Dr. McCormack said never close the school.

After preliminary discussion, it was moved that the schools with the exception of the first district school, should not be closed. The motion carried 8 to 1 and the schools will continue as usual.

The Board of Health recommended that all children's throats be sprayed with a salt solution. It would do no harm if the grown ups would do likewise.

Health Nurse Miss Anna Casey reported thirteen cases discharged, and thirteen active cases. Two cases diagnosed and treated as scarlet fever were really measles.

Why Vudor Shades

Are Better Than Awnings, Bamboo Screens
or Canvas Drops

Vudor Porch Shades should not be confused with ordinary porch screens —canvas curtains or bamboo shades, for instance.

Awnings and canvas curtains shut out the sun, but as they likewise prevent the circulation of air, the porch becomes an oven. It is like sitting in a tent with the sun beating down upon it.

Bamboo screens afford practically no protection. On account of the narrow, irregular strips used, and the thick cords employed to hold them together, the sun's rays find easy entrance through the cracks.

This defect also permits people on the outside to gaze in and there is no privacy behind a screen of this character.

Vudor Shades have none of these defects but have every requirement of the ideal shade. Order one today. Prices $2.75 to 5.75 according to size, all Vudor Shades are alike in quality.

If you want cheaper Shades we have another kind at $1.25 to 1.98

THE HIGH COST OF GOOD LIVING.

When the high cost of living is under debate it will be well to remember that it is in part the cost of good living. The people, or public officials on their behalf, are insisting on high food standards and naturally higher prices are the result.

A report of the health department of this city shows that 13,000,000 pounds of unwholesome food was confiscated and destroyed during 1913. No one will dispute the propriety of the health officers' action. Bad food ought not to be sold in New York. But it may as well be understood that the people paid for these 13,000,000 pounds just the same.

The shippers or purveyors from whom the seizures were made, and who were the losers in the first instance, we may be sure were not out in the long run. The value of the destroyed material was simply spread out thin over the better food that was sold; the consumers' paid the price and the dealers' balance sheets were none the worse on December 31.

One consolation remains to the public. It did not buy doctors' and undertakers' bills along with its fruit, milk and meat.—New York Sun.

A man who this year lends his aid to the Progressive cause in county or State is a better friend to minority rule and to the Democratic party than to his own principles.

SUNDAY'S UNIVERSITY WORK.

Billy Sunday's visit to the University of Pennsylvania has aroused such an interest in religion among the students that they have organized to keep the work going; and so they are sending out teams to hold meetings elsewhere in the State. The meetings are of a peculiar character, quite unlike the old revival meetings. For instance they have impersonations, banjo music, sleight-of-hand performances, talks on baseball and athletics, life aims and events, and subjects that young people are likely to listen to eagerly. At the same time a moral and religious import is given to everything that is said and done.

For instance, the speaker on athletics, who is captain of the 1913 baseball team, told of the connection between moral and physical training, and another speaker declared the biggest asset a young man can have toward a successful career is to become a Christian. The idea was to make the young man's everyday thought and experience radiant with religious truth. In no place, in all his wanderings, did the preaching of Billy Sunday work up such a high purpose as it did at the University of Pennsylvania; and yet Billy is so rud; and un-outh, you know.—Ohio State Journal.

IT WAS ALL RIGHT.

Evelyn—Well, don't worry about it. Some girls don't fancy beginners, but I don't mind.

AFTER FIVE YEARS

Winthrop Child Was Restored to Health By Vinol.
"Five years ago our little girl had a severe attack of diphtheria which left her subject to bronchitis and stomach trouble. She has been almost constantly under medical treatment. I have tried also two or three remedies containing cod liver oil but found her stomach rebelled against the oil. Reading your description of Vinol I decided to try it and did so with most astonishing results. I cannot begin to tell you how she has improved because you do not know what a little sufferer she was for five years. She has gained ten pounds since she commenced to take Vinol, and the story of what Vinol has done for her is only half told in this letter." Mrs. Adelaide Mulloy, Winthrop, Mass.
Vinol contains all the healing curative properties of cod liver oil, with out the oil, and tonic iron added. That is why it helped this little girl after other remedies had failed.
We ask mothers of weak, sickly children to try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to help them. J. C. Peacor, Druggist, Maysville, P. S.—Our Sazo Salve is truly wonderful for Eczema. We guarantee it.

BIG BURDEN OF PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

Would Mean a Public Debt Amounting to 27 Per Cent of Nation's Wealth.
At present the total public indebtedness of every name and nature in this country is not burdensome, for the amount is approximately $4,000,000,000 or say 2 1/2 per cent. of the total value of all property in the United States. But did our various forms of government take over all of the Public Utility Companies, as some advocate, the amount of such public indebtedness would be increased to nearly $45,000,000,000, or to over 27 per cent. of the entire property value of the country.—William J. Clarke in May Area.

Blessed Hope.
Dwight Moody.
Hope is the laughter of Faith. Joy sings in the morning—like the lark, but Hope is like the nightingale that sings in the dark. Most anyone can sing in the morning when everything is going well; but Hope sings in the dark, in the mist and fog—looks through the mist and darkness into the clear day. Faith is to work and to trust, but we cannot get on any better without Hope than we can without Faith.

HALL WILL SEAT 8,000.

(Engineering News.)
An immense convention hall with a seating capacity of 8000 has been planned by Egerton Swartwout for the proposed George Washington Memorial at Washington, D. C. Mr. Swartwout's design was awarded the first prize of $1,500 in a competition to which thirteen architects were invited. The plans call for an auditorium 270 feet long by 200 feet in width, arranged as an ellipse, which, according to the designer is not only the most economical layout for disposition of seats, but also presents the best acoustical properties. The building is a project of the George Washington Memorial Association, which has raised $500,000 of the $2,000,000 which will be required for its construction. The government has contributed a site on the Mall, at Washington, provided at least $1,000,000 can be raised by March 4, 1915.

LUKE McLuke SAYS.

The New York State Court of Appeals has gone on record as holding that "motherhood is an incident natural to marriage." Well, well! If we had only studied law we might have known this long ago.

The man who is afraid he might do too much is never paid too much. There are all sorts of people in the world, including the woman who makes funerals her favorite pastime.

Every baby resembles its mother in that it wants a lot of things it can't have.

I may be wrong, but I never believed there was much the matter with the man who was cured by a patent medicine.

What has become of the old-fashioned girl who had to be coaxed to play the piano?

We are all attracted by our opposites. That is why a gabby woman lands a dumb mutt who is a good listener.

Nature intended that man should have larger feet than woman. But that was before white shoes were invented.

Having thin arms doesn't keep a girl from wearing elbow length sleeves, because she realizes that a man won't know that it is a habit with her a

Gentlemen—
After completing our village at New Holland, Pa., we experimented with some half dozen various brands of paint by dividing our village up into sections of ten houses each and painting each ten with a different brand.
On one section of ten houses we used Lead and Oil, the other five sections we used paints mostly used in this section, and considered to be the leading brands.
After eight years we find that the ten cottages covered with "MASTIC PAINT" are in better condition and stood the test better than any of the others, even including Lead and Oil. Will say further that the houses were all of the same architecture, weatherboarded with long leaf yellow pine of the same grade, having same exposure to the sun that is, none of them were partially protected by shade trees, but fully exposed.
We are well pleased with the results of the "MASTIC PAINT" and can heartily recommend same, to any one who is a buyer.

COUNTY ATTORNEYS

Must Attend Police Court When Felony Cases are Being Heard is Ruling of Attorney General to Frankfort Prosecutor.

Frankfort.—County attorneys and not city prosecuting attorneys should represent the Commonwealth in police courts when the police judges hold examining trials of felony charges.

Such is the opinion of Assistant Attorney General Logan to Dublin Moss, City Prosecutor of Frankfort. Moss recently objected to representing the Commonwealth in an examining trial in the police court contending that it is a duty of the county attorney. Being overruled by Police Judge W. C. Herndon, he requested an opinion from Attorney General Garnett on the point.

While the opinion of Logan in this case covers only third-class cities, the rule will be applied to police courts in all cities unless there is a statute directing otherwise.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Pains of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Annie McClellan, 541 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was often dizzy and nervous and my head ached. I had pain in my back and my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the complaint immediately and made me well and strong."

Mrs. McClellan is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. McClellan had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Persistence Won in End.

When at length the session had dragged itself for more than six weeks and political fortune swung back and forth susceptible to each eddying current of fate, when the election of a Senator threatened to block all legislation, there came a day when the atmosphere seemed surcharged with eventualities. This was that memorable day in February when a Democratic Legislature in Kentucky placed a Republican United States Senator in office. The defection from the Democratic ranks of half a handful of legislators whose sole ambition was to beat Beckham had broken the seemingly endless deadlock by casting their votes for William O'Connell Bradley.

Bradley's career as a lawyer stretched over a period of more than 40 years, and he was connected with many famous cases in all the Courts of the State and nation. He was a noted political campaigner and a cunning wit. In an appeal for law and order in Kentucky, Bradley condemned the work of the night riders. He said that Kentucky could never reach the position to which she was entitled until lawlessness had been stopped and until perfect law and order prevailed in every county in the Commonwealth.

In connection with the shortcomings of Kentucky, and in concluding his address, he said: "But with all Kentucky's faults I love her still, and with all her stills I love her faults."

Made Dramatic Fight.

One of the most dramatic scenes in the political career of Senator Bradley, and at the same time one of the most noted events in his life, occurred at the Republican State convention of Kentucky in 1908 at Louisville. Senator Bradley had just a few months before been elected United States Senator by a Democratic Legislature, and, though he was not to take his seat in the United States Senate until March, 1909, yet it was absolutely certain to men of political foresight that he was bound to become the dominating factor in Republican state politics.

No sooner had he been elected Senator than he threw himself into the campaign, a champion of Vice President Fairbanks for the nomination for the presidency over Taft, who was President Roosevelt's candidate and who had the support of the powerful Republican Federal office-holding trust in Kentucky. Senator Bradley stamped the State and in every instance he "peeled the bark" from Teddy Roosevelt, as he called him, denouncing him for trying to name the nominee for President and for using the famous steam roller process in turning down the common people in their attempt to send delegates to the Chicago convention.

Defeat Spelled Victory.

Senator Bradley and his friends made a hard fight for him to get on the delegation. His speech before the convention was one of the ablest campaign efforts of his life. It was clearly observed by unbiased listeners that the delegates were at heart for him, but they felt their Federal jobs were at stake and they blindly voted against the man who had fought their battles before his real opponents had ever begun to vote the Republican ticket. Although he went down in defeat by not being sent as a delegate to the National Convention, yet it afterward proved a victory for him. He served notice on Ernest Bullitt, Cochran and Postmaster Woods, Roosevelt leaders, that he would camp on their trail.

Senator Bradley moved on to Chicago anyhow and opened up headquarters, which proved to be the greatest drawing card at the convention. From outside the walls of the convention his voice drowned that of any Kentucky delegate on the inside.

It was declared by the Kentucky Republican leaders at the convention that Senator Bradley had killed himself and that he would never get any sort of recognition should Taft be elected President. To this Senator Bradley gave the reply that he would prove to be the liveliest corpse that was ever on exhibition in Washington.

He never uttered a truer saying. Even before Taft took his seat as President overtures were made to Senator Bradley and several conferences were held. After Mr. Taft took his seat, and a redistribution of the pie began, it was soon demonstrated that Senator Bradley had on his fighting clothes and all his old enemies would have to walk the plank.

Richard P. Ernst disappeared as State Chairman; Dou C. Edwards lost his seat in Congress; Judge William D. Cochran of Maysville, became silent and Postmaster Robert E. Woods, of Louisville, given rough sailing the remainder of his tenure in office.

Above all things Senator Bradley was an aggressive and untiring fighter. He

TO REST

In Noted Frankfort Cemetery—Body of Senator Bradley Back Home

Great Outpouring at Kentucky Capital to Honor Great Kentuckian's Funeral This Afternoon

Washington, May 25.—The United States Senate, through Sergeant-at-Arms Charles Higgins, yesterday took charge of the arrangements for the funeral of the late Senator William O. Bradley, of Kentucky, under the custom which prevails when one of its members dies in active service.

The Senate will deliver the body at its final resting place in Kentucky, pay all expenses incident to the funeral, of whatever character, and will appropriate for the use of Mrs. Bradley, the Senator's widow, the sum of $7,500, which represents his salary for one year as a Senator.

The body of the late Senator rested yesterday at the undertaking establishment to which it was removed immediately after his death Saturday night.

When the Senate met this morning Senator Ollie M. James arose and informed the Senate that Saturday night at 9:45 the senior senator from Kentucky passed away.

Vice President Marshall named as the Senators who are to escort the body to Kentucky the following:

James, of Kentucky; Smoot, of Utah; Kern and Shively, of Indiana; Gallinger, of New Hampshire; Warren, of Wyoming; Overman, of North Carolina; Fall, of New Mexico; Hughes and Martine, of New Jersey; Poindexter, of Washington; LaFollette, of Wisconsin; Root, of New York; Kenyon, of Iowa; and Chilton and Goff of West Virginia.

House Acts Also.

A similar resolution was offered and adopted in the House, though who will present it is not yet quite certain. Representative Caleb Powers is the only Republican member here from Kentucky. Representative Langley being absent in the State.

At an informal meeting of the Democratic members of the Kentucky delegation yesterday afternoon a list of names was agreed upon for members of the Funeral Committee, which does not include the name of Caleb Powers.

However, Mr. Powers had anticipated such action by informing Speaker Clark that he (Powers) would be unable to go to Kentucky and requesting that his name be left off the committee. All of the Kentucky members who are in Washington, except Powers, will be placed on the committee.

Representatives Kahn, of California, will be another member.

Speaker Clark yesterday wired to Representative Cantrill, who is in Kentucky, asking him to join the funeral party there.

Special Train Engaged.

A special train of three coaches will leave at 3 o'clock this afternoon. One coach will bear the body and the family party, another will be used for the Senators and the third for the members from the House.

The train will arrive at Frankfort about 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The funeral services will take place at 3:30 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. South, the Senator's daughter. Interment will be at Frankfort Cemetery. The special train will start back to Washington immediately after the funeral.

The family party, as made up at present to accompany the body, includes Dr. and Mrs. South, Colonel and Mrs. Eph Lillard, Robert B. Mays, of Richmond, Ky.; the Senator's nephew, Franklin Fortune, the Senator's messenger, and Mrs. Traube, sister of Dr. South.

Senator Bradley's only son George, who died 17 years ago, is buried at Lancaster, Ky., but it is understood his body will be removed to Frankfort and interred by the side of his father.

Suffered Great Agony.

Senator Bradley, it is learned, suffered great agony in his last illness. To alleviate his suffering the physicians gave him morphine until they were afraid to administer more of the opiate, but still the pain did not leave him. A few hours before his death he was delirious and talked wildly about dictating letters and introducing bills.

For 10 days or two weeks the Senator had a presentiment that he was going to die soon. On starting back to Washington during his recent trip to Kentucky, he bade Dr. and Mrs. South good-bye and said:

"I will never see you again."

Recently while at work in his office he startled Miss Lane, his clerk, by remarking that he could hear "the wheels of a hearse."

The New Senator.

It is possible that within the next 10 months Kentucky may have three new United States Senators. The governor may appoint a Senator who will serve until the general election in November. The people may then elect a Senator who will serve until March 4, and another Senator who will take the office on March 4 and serve six years. It is more likely, however, that the one who is elected to fill the short term from November until March 4, will be elected for the full term, beginning March 4.

Funeral Service Simple.

Washington, May 25.—The Senator's body will not lie in state at the capitol in Frankfort, but will be taken immediately to the home of his son-in-law, Dr. South, from which place, at 3:30 o'clock, the funeral services will be conducted. These will consist of a prayer and sermon by the Rev. Dr. Jess R. Ziegler, of the Presbyterian Church, and of hymns. The hymns will be selected by Mrs. Margaret Duncan Bradley, widow of the Senator, who was too ill to make the trip to Washington. After the services at the South home the casket will be taken to the State Cemetery.

The pallbearers selected are: M. H. Thatcher, L. F. Petty, J. P. Haswell, J. M. Chilton and Homer Batson of Louisville, R. C. Stoll and Wilbur Smith of Lexington, and Frank Taylor of Glasgow.

The list of honorary pallbearers comprises fifty-two of the best-known men in the State and nation, who were friends of Senator Bradley. Among them are: Former President William H. Taft, Charles W. Fairbanks, Gen. W. B. Haldeman, A. E. Willson, Governor James B. McCreary, T. H. Pender, W. J. Deboe, E. P. Lillard, Percy Haly, C. C. McChord, Henry Hall, William Marshall Bullitt, L. W. Bernheim and Lawson Reno.

Telegrams and messages of condolence from all parts of the United States continue to pour in on the members of the Bradley family today. Former President Taft and Mrs. Taft, former Vice-President Fairbanks, many members of former cabinets and distinguished men in all walks of life testified to their grief at the death of the famous Kentuckian. From his home State the messages came in great shaves.

STAFF OF GOV BRADLEY TO ESCORT REMAINS.

General Wilbur R. Smith, adjutant general under Senator Bradley, when governor, wired the remaining members of the governor's military staff, to meet the train at Ashland and escort the remains to the State capitol.

Of the nine members of the staff, only four are now living besides General Smith, namely: Colonel C. C. Kenner, Louisville, Ky.; Colonel Gus Uhling, Newport, Ky.; Colonel Frank Coles, Ashland, Ky., and Asst. Adj. Gen. Walter Forrester, Louisville, Ky.

BRADLEY'S BODY TO LIE IN STATE.

Frankfort, Ky., May 25.—Arrangements have been made here today for the body of the late senator to lie in state in the old capitol tomorrow until the hours of the funeral at 3:30 o'clock. Colonel L. P. Tarleton wired this morning to Mrs. J. G. South, at Washington, asking her if the family would consent to that arrangement. An immense crowd is expected and a special probably will come from Louisville.

Mrs. Thomas Badgley will hereafter represent The Ledger in Aberdeen.

CLOSELY PLAYED CONTEST

Cubs Defeated the League Leaders By the Score of 3 to 2 in a Well-Played Game—Two Maysville Players Injured.

The lowly Cubs made it an even break by putting it on the champion Babes by the score of 3 to 2. The game was one of the best played on the local diamond this year and belonged to anyone until the last man was retired.

Reily was the man Manager Newnam picked to do the twirling for the Babes and Raemes acted to the same capacity for the home club.

Maysville started the ball to rolling right off the reel. Badel walked and was sacrificed to second by Chapman. Curtis singled down the third base line and Badel crossed the plate. Curtis was out trying to go to second on the play. Donovan bounded to Newnam and was thrown out at first.

Chillicothe tied the score in the second frame. Nesser doubled to right and scored on Eisels' single. Houtz sacrificed. Friend bounded to Raemes, who threw Eisels out at third. Newnam lined out to Emery.

The Cubs forged ahead again in the same inning. Dieterich beat out a hot one to Reily. Emery singled through short, Dieterich going to third. Emery stole second. Barrett and Gohr took four wide ones apiece and forced Dieterich in. Raemes fanned. Badel hit to Nesser, who threw Emery out at home. Chapman was out, Reily to Nesser.

The infants tied the score again in the sixth on Shovlin's single, Nesser's sacrifice and Eisels' double.

The game continued along in the same even tenor until the ninth when the locals slid across the winning run. With two down and Gohr on first, Chapman singled through second and sent the fleet-footed catcher around to the third station. Corbin tried to throw Gohr out on the play and Chapman started for second. Parmelee threw the ball to catch him, but instead of going to the proper destination, the ball hit Chapman in the head and rolled back almost to the home plate. Gohr scored on the play.

RIGHT OFF THE BAT.

The Cubs left this morning to play two games at Lexington and will return here Thursday for two games with the same club.

It looks as if some one else must have stepped on Frank Nesser's batting average. In eight times at bat here in two games he got one lonely budge.

As there is no game here today, the regular "Ladies' Day," the management have designated Thursday as the day for the ladies to turn out and root for the home boys.

President Read wired Umpire Brown here last night that his services were no longer needed in this organization. This is a good move by President Read but it should have been done sooner.

Manager Chapman last night released Outfielder Netter and Pitcher Linson. Both these men are good in their respective positions and should have no trouble in hooking on with some other club in the Read circuit.

In the third inning Donovan made a sensational one-hand catch of Corbin's liner to center. The ball almost hit the ground and Dick had to take it a high speed. Had the ball gone by it would have been good for a homer.

Jimmy Emery, who has been short, stopping here for the past several weeks, shows a great improvement in the last week, both at bat and in the field. In the two games here with the Babes he has secured five hits out of seven times at bat and also got several walks.

Curtis got a split finger in the sixth when Eisels slid into third and was nipped by Chuck.

Harry Griffin came in from Richmond, Va., yesterday to accept a position on the pitching staff of the local team.

Missing Temperance Worker, Thought Dead, Tells Strange Story

Danville, Ill., May 25.—The Rev. Louis Patmont, prohibition lecturer and staff correspondent of the Christian Standard of Cincinnati, who was found in a deserted farmhouse near Columbia, Ill., today presented himself to the Vermillion County grand jury to tell the story of how he was kidnapped from Westville, Ill., March 31.

Following his disappearance he was reported dead and memorial services were held. His body was reported found in Cleveland. It was not until several examinations were made that the mistake was made certain.

Burn's detectives say they have learned whose red touring car was used by the kidnappers. A score of detectives are at work. Some are working independently and other were sent here by the First Church of Christ of Detroit.

State Attorney J. H. Lewman says he has learned that there were seven men in the plot, two Italians, three Americans and two Irish-Americans. It is expected that arrests soon will be made.

Patmont says he was taken two miles on a hand-car, placed in an auto and carried to an old house near here, placed in a cellar through a trap door and kept until a week ago, when he was removed to Columbia, Ill. He believes he was close to Westville all the time. A foreigner attended to his wants. Continuing his story of his experience he said:

"I was given a drug in my food which dazed my brain and I can hardly realize what happened to me. The cellar that was my prison was about 18x20 feet square. The floor was dirty and damp."

"Too keep himself from becoming insane, he composed hymns and repeated poetry."

Mr. Patmont was in Cincinnati last March and expects to return to that city soon. The State attorney today wired the Christian Standard in Cincinnati that Mr. Patmont was without funds, and was instructed in reply to draw on the Standard.
